

SEMI-WEEKLY SOUTH KENTUCKIAN

FRIDAY, AUGUST 24, 1888.

W. A. WILGUS, Editor and Proprietor.
J. O. RUST, Associate Editor.
T. E. BARTLEY, Business Manager.

One of the serious effects of the recent rains was to interfere with base ball games in Louisville.

Miss Caldwell formerly of Louisville, and sister of Miss Gwendolin Caldwell, who gave $300,000 for the founding of a Catholic University in Washington, is to marry Baron Von Ziehlitz, formerly of the German Embassy to the United States, now Minister to Mexico.

Ig. Hounelly is here again. Cambridge accepted his Baccalaureate by a vote of 121 to 101, but old Oxford rejected it by a vote of 127 to 37. Ig. dont care. He has put up a big ad. and his book is going to sell like hot cakes. There was never a day cold enough for Ig. to get left.

At a meeting of the directors of the Russellville Herald, some days since, a reorganization of the management was effected. Col. H. M. McCarty being elected president, with a tender of the editorship during the Congressional and Presidential canvases. He has not accepted, but holds the offer under consideration.

Col. Comstock, for some years the manager of the Mammoth Cave Hotel, has retired and been succeeded by Col. Fred Meitz, Travelling Auditor of the Louisville & Nashville railroad. The new position of Col. Meitz will not, however, interfere with his railroad duties as he will be represented at the hotel by deputies who understand their business.

Mr. George W. Jolly, Republican, went over to Whitesville and made a speech and was voted around on the shoulders of the crowd. Mr. Jolly is determined to be Jolly. If he wants to find out this world is a vain and fleeting show just let him tackle Bill Ellis for Congress. It isn't much of a fall from the shoulders of a howling crowd to the earth, and its far short of a "dull thud."

Carlisle is ready for the fray. When asked about the Blaine debates he said: "I know nothing more about it than you do and what we all read in the newspapers. No proposition of that character has been made to me, but if the national committee should consider it was advisable to conduct such a debate, and would request me to take the rostrum with Mr. Blaine, I would undoubtedly do so, providing, of course, the dates fixed did not interfere with my official duties."

Now is Mr. Blaine's turn to talk and the people are very anxious to hear from him.

Occasionally some veterans who are duly impressed with importance of "the good old times" arise to outdo their contemporaries of former days and make a slug at the college bred journalists of the present time. No doubt when these paugreists were young the same thing was being done, and we are bold enough to say that if a fair estimate could be had the personal of the state press would show up better to-day than ever before. It should be better ten years hence and will. There is nothing in a college course to destroy a man's efficiency.

Frank Clark is running the Lexington Asylum in the style. Besides having become familiar with the "politicians" Frank has turned his head to horticulture and to feed his patients like they were members of the family. He gives them for dinner, 800 roasted ears, 6 bushels of tomatoes, 8 bushels of potatoes, 40 head of cabbage and other vegetables in proportion. The gardener has put up 50 barrels of kraut and 700 bushels of onions for winter and will put up 200 bushels of tomatoes.

Should the bill granting Mrs. Irene Tucker Sheridan a pension of $5,000 per annum become a law, it will be the only case where this amount is given to any person except the widow of an ex-President of the United States. Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Hancock and Mrs. Blank each receive $2,000 as the widow of a major general. A pension of $3,000 was given Mrs. Lincoln on July 11, 1870, and on February 2, 1882, the amount was increased to $5,000. Mrs. Grant has received the same amount since December 1885, and Mrs. Garfield since 1881. Mrs. Polk has received the same sum since 1881. Mrs. Tyler has received this amount since 1880, and had previously drawn $1,500 on account of her husband's services in the war of 1812—Ex.

The Democratic Campaign Book is ready for the public. It can be had of the National Democratic Committee, 10 West Twenty-ninth street, New York City. The price is $1; in clubs of five or more fifty cents.

This is to be a campaign of facts and figures. No mere declamation, or empty vaporizing will pass. The man who can not talk "tariff" with the bark on had better keep off the stump. All those fellows who have memorized the climaxes of old orations and the odds and ends of temperance lectures and platform vociferations, if they have any respect for their reputations, had better go in their holes. We don't want any personal abuse or far fetched landing of candidates. The tariff is the issue and it is a statistical question largely. "The people want to know about it, and if our speakers have no intelligent ideas on the subject they had better go off and reflect over the maximum that silence is golden.

Roger Q. Mills.

M. D. Brown, of Hopkinsville, writes to the Courier-Journal as follows:

"A writer from Livingston county a short time since in making a pronouncement spoke of Hon. Roger Q. Mills as a native of that county. I do not wish to interfere with the ideas of the very able correspondent, but as Mr. Mills is one of the strong men of the present day, the acknowledged leader in Congress, of our party, I feel it but just to say that the birthplace of Mr. Mills is Todd county. He was born and raised on the farm now owned by Mr. David Tandy, adjoining Mr. Wm. Jessup, in what is known as Jessup's Grove, the finest tract of land in Southern Kentucky, three miles east of Fairview. Mr. Mills' parents are buried at Old Salem, in Livingston county, but he lived there only a few weeks. His brother, John N. Mills, is a native of Hopkinsville, and a man of the highest order of integrity. Mr. Mills some ten years ago delivered what is said to be the finest political oration ever heard in this end of the State. He has been invited by the Democracy to address the people on the great issue on his return home after the adjournment of Congress. It is hoped and believed he will accept, at which time the good people of Christiana will take pleasure in giving him such a reception as should be tendered one occupying the position of a great political leader."

The gentleman who wrote to the Standard did not state that Mr. Mills was born in Livingston county, but gave his birthplace as Todd county. His parents moved to Livingston when he was a lad and he lived there until he was a young man. There are numbers of people who remember him, among them Judge W. D. Greer, of this city and the writer of the article in the Standard, who shook hands with him on his departure for Texas.—Paducah Standard.

Uncle Hal Jackson was in town last Monday and gave us an interesting account of the peculiar freaks of a turkey gobbler which he has on his place. Sometime since he found that the turkey had taken possession of a nest of guinea eggs by which he was acting the maternal part by setting on them. When she attempted to make the gobbler get off his turkeyship showed light and refused to leave the nest. Mr. Jackson at once became interested in the outcome of the proceedings and day and after day went to see how the gobbler was progressing in his new undertaking. Last Friday he went to look after his turkey and found that his persistence had caused the eggs to hatch. But what was his surprise to find that the gobbler instead of caluating the brood, had, as each young guinea left the shell, caught the youngster by the head and crushed its skull. The young guineas were scattered around the nest, each one stone dead. The turkey seemed dissatisfied with his efforts and proposed to kill the whole brood. There were twenty-five eggs in the nest and all hatched except four or five that were spoiled. During the morning the gobbler set with head to sunrise; as soon as 12 o'clock came he would turn with his head to the west and remain in that position until some time during the night when he would change to see the rising sun. The gobbler is now without a job and is walking around as unconcerned as though he had never played the mother or failed to produce his kind.—Hopkins County Huester.

The rains came—regular root-suckers, a little too much it may be to suit the "most fastidious," but they came like a benediction to the parched crops. There is now every reason to believe that tobacco and corn will come out a big average and that our country will literally flow with milk and honey. Business men have naturally been despondent. The times have been hard, but we now seem to be in sight of a turn in the lane. All sorts of reasons have been given for the slow times in Hopkinsville, some of which were no reasons at all, but we dare say that when our crops are marketed this year our merchants will feel the effect in largely increased sales. The I. A. & T. road is the thorn in the flesh and will be until we remove it by compromise or competition. But even that can not keep us from having a fine trade this fall and winter, and everybody should be encouraged to expect the best and work for it.

The murder of two policemen by Digger in Louisville last week brings up the question of how officers are to treat refractory offenders. Policemen are at a decided disadvantage. They can not use violence unless as a last resort, and while they are determining this delicate point they may be slaughtered. On the other hand if they lay on a reckless application of the club they are criminally responsible. The question can best be determined by the courts. Whenever an individual persists in defying the law and gives evidence by violent conduct of a criminal career, the court should seize an early opportunity of giving him a "long term." It is the possibility of escape from punishment that encourages many a man to become a murderer, and if the penitentiary stood fronting every assassin crime would grow beautiful less.

Al here, Levi, you have been importing labor under contract, have you? Dalmatians and gardeners you have brought over to water your flowers and trim your shrubbery. Ah! Levi, you are a slick one to be head over heels in love with the working man, when an American maid is not good enough to milk your cows and you have to go to England for a lad to hoe your garden walks.

BETHEL ASSOCIATION.

An Enthusiastic Meeting of Baptists.

"Did you attend the Association today?" said one neighbor to another on their way to the Baptist church on Tuesday night.

"I was out in the afternoon, but not in the morning" was the reply.

"You heard the best part. The speeches in the afternoon were very interesting, but the letters from the churches, which were read in the morning were rather dry."

"I did not think so," said a third party. "As the name of each church was called out, I felt a desire to know something of the condition of that church and this I obtained by listening to the statistics."

Dr. T. T. Eaton, of Louisville, gave an illustration in the same direction during the afternoon discussion. As he had been taking notes while the letters were read, he was ready with some telling facts as to what the churches were doing or not doing in spreading the gospel.

"Here is a church that reports one dollar given for missions. Can you be in earnest for the conversion of the world, and give only one dollar to aid in the work? They report that two of their members have died during the year and 70 are left. Those 70 might as well be dead so far as the great work of salvation is concerned." After the reading of the letters, Dr. J. D. Clardy was elected Moderator, and Rev. J. T. Barrow, clerk.

Rev. E. N. Dicken, of Fairview, Rev. C. C. Bow, of Pembroke, and Rev. J. S. Fox, of Owensboro, presented the claims of the Minister's Aid Society, an organization lately started under the auspices of the Kentucky Baptist General Association. Its object is to establish a permanent fund for the relief of indigent ministers and their families. About $50 were subscribed for this purpose.

The Executive Board of the Association reported that, besides the funds which they had received from the churches and forwarded for State Missions, for Home Missions, and for Foreign Missions, they had collected and disbursed $385.53 for missions within the bounds of this Association. Rev. Messrs. F. W. Carney, C. A. Barnes, J. N. Prestridge, H. S. Lowry, A. C. Harris, R. W. Morehead, J. U. Spurrin, and J. W. Boyd testified to the good which had been accomplished in various localities and to the need of further mission work.

On Tuesday night, Rev. J. C. Bow preached the annual sermon from 2 Chron. 20:15. "Thus saith the Lord unto you. Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's." After the sermon, the committee made a report on the Orphan's Home in Louisville. He gave a very touching description of the transfer of two little orphans from their desolate home in this county to their comfortable foster-home in Louisville. This report and this speech enthused Dr. Eaton to the speaking point and the congregation made a liberal donation to the Orphan's Home, represented by Miss Mary Hollingsworth.

The report on Association Missions was adopted early on Wednesday morning, and then came the consideration of the missions of the General Association of Ky. In the report of Rev. J. N. Prestridge on this subject, he said: "Our State Board has now 100 men in the field. During the last year, it has raised and expended on our work, $17,125.93. There were received into the churches through and by the aid of these workers 2031 members. It has educated 630 churches to taking up the own mission collections, some of which contribute every month and some every week to these causes. The Secretary of the Board has succeeded in organizing many "circles" of churches for discussing and disseminating the educational and missionary interests of our denomination."

Next came the claims of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, advocated by Rev. S. P. Fergy and Rev. T. T. Eaton. To this board is committed the work of supplying the destitution in the Southern States, in the Indian Territory and in Cuba, where that wonderful man Dias is doing a work that seems to be as truly apostolic as was that of Paul. The Atlanta Board expended $79,177.32 during the last convention year; Kentucky contributed $3,816.35 of that amount. There were baptized by the missionaries of that Board 457 professed believers.

Prof. Fruit made a report on Denominational papers, in which special mention was made of the Western Recorder, the Foreign Mission Journal, the Home Field, the Heathen Helper, the Orphan's Friend, and the Kind Word's Series. Several men of capital and enterprise purchased the Western Recorder, last fall, and they are sparing no expense that may be needful to place it in the very front rank of religious newspapers.

Rev. J. A. Kendall read a report on Bethel Female College, and Rev. J. G. Bow one on Bethel College. These reports and the remarks of Prof. J. W. Rust, and Revs. J. N. Prestridge, T. T. Eaton, E. N. Dicken and W. S. Ryland showed that these institutions were never more worthy of public patronage than at the present time.

and that the salary of two missionaries provided we pay the other half and occupy the field. It is with sadness that we record the deaths of three of our missionaries to China. Brethren Davaut and Yates fell at their posts, and Sister Graves died in California on her way to her home in Baltimore. To supply the places thus made vacant by death, and to reinforce our missions, our board at Richmond, Va., recently approved fifteen new missionaries for the work. This will necessitate increased liberality on the part of our churches and a greater personal consecration to this work by our people generally."

Rev. W. S. Ryland read a report on obituaries making attention to the deaths of the following ministers who have died during the last association year: W. C. Taylor, Samuel Baker D. J. and J. M. Peay, D. D.

The Association adjourned about 5 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon to meet one year hence at Guthrie.

The latest nominees (?) for the Republican Congressional honors from this point of the compass, are, according to the Messenger, E. P. Campbell and Lige Seebree. Latham beat Jolly in '86 over 3,000 votes, and the loyalty of these gentlemen will have to be pretty stiff before they will tackle so large a majority.

We learn that Mr. James D. Hays and Charles M. Meacham will arrive in the city in a few days from San Diego, Cal. One by one the wanderers return.
Luther Benson, one of the most competent temperance advocates in this country, will speak at the court house Sunday and Monday nights at 7:30 o'clock. No admission.
Gov. Buckner has appointed Mr.
V. M. Metcalfe, of this city, forestry commissioner to represent the State of Kentucky at the centennial exposition in Columbus, Ohio.
John Poland, Jr., is favorably mentioned in connection with the Republican Congressional nomination. If the Elder John should take the stump for his "Uncle Ben" and with the young one after Bill Ellis, things would be lively in this neck of the woods.
On next Monday night, Moore Company, No. 6, K. T., will confer all the orders of Templar Masonry.
The Commandery will open at 6 o'clock p. m. and the Red Cross banquet will be given at 7 o'clock.
By this arrangement all the work will be completed without difficulty in one evening. All visiting Sir Knights are cordially invited to be present.
Two weeks ago a government de-lusive dropped down upon the town, and after a few days went his way again. Monday evening Deputy Marshal Groer came over from Hopkinsville.
Yesterday morning Capt. Groer took the police into his confidence, and simultaneously Amos Daily, Benedict Walker, Owen C. K. Barrett, Tom Hurd and Felix Groves were arrested for a violation of the U. S. revenue laws.—Owensboro Messenger.
Walter Brooks, who lived near Hayley, was tried and convicted of insolvency this morning before Judge Grider.
The original cause of his insolvency was a tick which he received on top of the head by a rock from the hands of Al Patterson, with whom he had a fight in the year 1857. During the thirty years since that time, he has been subject to fits, but in the last two or three years these fits have become more frequent and aggravated, resulting in the entire loss of mental responsibility.
Mr. Brooks is now fifty-seven years of age. He will be sent to the asylum at Hopkinsville.—Bowling Green Democrat.

TO FREE WITH HIS POP.

A House Fired Into And An Irate Citizen Responds With A Shot Gun.
Pat McMannon's shoe shop is on Ninth street, near the depot. His shop is in the rear of the shop, which fronts on the street. Wednesday night he had retired and was reading in bed by the light of a lamp. About 10:30 o'clock he was startled by two pistol shots, the bullets crashing through the front window, one lodging in the ceiling, the other in a show case. Quick as a flash Pat seized his shotgun and coming out found Ed Gonhot and Alex Lovier standing in front of Christian's drug store, Gon-hot with a pistol in his hand. He leveled the gun on them and was about to shoot but they begged off and left. McMannon then notified the police and they started in pursuit of the fellows. He says he cannot account for the cowardly attack on him unless it was because he had recently testified against Gonhot in a prohibition prosecution. This is the account given of the affair by Mr.
McMannon, who is a courageous citizen and will not submit to such treatment.
Policemen Higgerstaff and Wittesearched the town for Gonhot and Lovier and finally found them out-near the fair ground. They were lodged in the lock-up, where a KEN-TUCKIAN reporter saw them Thursday morning. They both deny any complicity in the affair. They say they were in "late's" grocery taking a milk shake and heard two pistol shots.
They started down to Gonhot's store to retire for the night and when they reached the door McMannon came upon them with his gun and it was by the hardest that they kept from being shot.
Gonhot and Lovier were before Judge Winfree yesterday morning and were held over under a bond of $300 and $100 respectively to await trial Saturday. There will be several witnesses to throw light on the episode.

A Yelling and a Clubbing.

We Tuesday night about 9 o'clock police Higgerstaff and Witte saw two men on Virginia street yelling. They followed the fellows to Buckner's stable where they disappeared. At the stable door the officers saw John Williams, John Leavell and a negro, who refused to tell them what became of the two men. A fuss arose over the matter and Leavell, who was drinking, was arrested. Williams started to use a heavy pole on the officers and policeman Witte clubbed him over the head. During the scuffle Leavell got away and Williams was taken in hand but subsequently released after being notified to appear in the city court on the charge of resisting an officer.
Williams says he did not resist as charged; that he was at the stable discharging his accustomed duties and the officers came down on him without cause. He was holding the pole but had no intention of using it when Witte struck him a severe blow on the head. He swore on a warrant against Witte for assault and battery, yesterday morning.

Advance Threshers.
Another Shipment to the Northwest.
OVER 100 MACHINES SHIPPED BY THE MICHIGAN CENTRAL THIS MORNING.
THOUSANDS WITNESS THEIR DEPARTURE FROM THE DEPOT.
Music and Decorations Make an Animating Scene.
[Battle Creek Daily Journal, Aug. 8, 1888.]
The Advance Thresher Company made another immense shipment of Threshers this morning.
Three weeks last Saturday the Company sent a single shipment of one hundred of their celebrated and deservingly popular machines, which had all been sold to the Dakota and Minnesota trade, and the announcement that there would be another shipment of over 100 machines to the same point so soon was a surprise to our community. At a few minutes before eight o'clock this morning the train arrived at the new depot of the M. C. R. R., where a vast crowd were waiting to see this remarkable exhibit of the products of Battle Creek manufacture.
The train consisted of twenty-six flat cars, bearing 103 machines, and one straw burner engine, a box car loaded with Marshall's Band Cutters and Self-Feeders, (2000 of which will be built next season by the company), a caboose, and a car occupied by the German band, and was drawn by Morgan Engine No. 275. A number of the stockholders of the Company accompanied the train as far as Kalamazoo, in a special coach. The band will accompany the train as far as Chicago where it will arrive at six o'clock this evening and will go into the city before stopping. From thence the train, which is in charge of P. S. Lovell, will go over the Chicago and Northwestern railway to Minneapolis.
The Advance Thresher Company have manufactured and shipped over 800 Threshers thus far this season and also a large number of engines and threshing supplies. Our citizens must have all felt a justifiable pride in contemplation of this large shipment of agricultural machinery, and as this train rolls along through the country to its destination, Minneapolis, it will be an effective advertisement not only for the Advance Thresher Company but also of our prosperous and beautiful city. The train was photographed at the depot and the picture gives a very true representation of the long train loaded with Threshers, decorated, and bright in the morning sun.
This company have shipped 77 threshers, 31 engines and 10 horse powers, outside of this train load, since the train load shipped July 14th, which gives a slight idea of the immense business being done by the company, and it should be remembered these goods are all sold. The company is still making five machines per day, for the Minnesota and Dakota trade, and will continue to do so up to August 15. The train is run on schedule time and will be photographed on the C. & N. W. railway on the bridge at Minneapolis, for that company.
Forbes & Bro., of Hopkinsville, Ky., as Agents for The Advance Thresher Company have sold eighteen of the popular Advance Threshing Machines, one Advance Traction Engine and one Marshall's Band Cutter and Self-Feeder. The success of these machines stands without precedent in this country, having thoroughly proved to our farmers that they are the best cleaners and separators and greatest grain savers ever used in this country. We confidently predict that they will continue to "Advance" in the estimation of our farmers and threshermen.

lines, 5 cents per line. These rates will be strictly adhered to. Our space is our stock in trade and we cannot insert advertisements for less than the paper with matters of general interest.

Capt. E. G. Abernathy's Death.
Yesterday at 12:30 o'clock Capt. E.
G. Abernathy died after an illness of 8 months. The immediate cause of his death was congestion of the lungs, not the trouble which had so long confining him. He was calm and peaceful till the last, and went out as the day dying in the arms of evening. The funeral will probably be held some time to-day.
Capt. Abernathy was born in Virginia, April 30th, 1825. He moved to this city in 1859 and built the first tobacco warehouse over erected here.
He has been the recognized leader in tobacco circles and his counsel and advice were sought in all commercial enterprises of importance conducted in this community. He was a diligent member of the Baptist church and blended with an active life the graces of a christian character. No death has occurred lately in our city which is more universally deplored.

Letters of Credit.
Agent. A. J. Dabney having resigned from the faculty of South Kentucky College, the following complimentary letters were passed between him and Pres. Seoby: HOPKINSVILLE, KY., Aug. 16th.—To the Executive Committee of the Faculty of South Kentucky College—Gentlemen: Having had my verbal resignation as a member of the faculty of South Kentucky College. My reason for so doing is that I have had a flattering offer of employment elsewhere, which in justice to myself and my family, I should not decline.
It is with deep regret that I sever relations that have been so friendly and pleasant, and indeed so instructive to me, and which I have ever held with a paragonable feeling of pride. In parting I wish you ever success in carrying on the work of education that you have worked to such a high standard, as at South Kentucky College, and I bespeak for you a renewed and increased success in the recognition by the friends of the college and the public of your unfailing devotion. I am sincerely and respectfully yours, ALBERT JOHNETT DABNEY.

South Kentucky College. Aug.
18.—Prof. Albert J. Dabney—Dear sir: Your formal letter of resignation from the faculty of South Kentucky College has been received. Though your intentions had been made known to us, we feel that, in the circumstances, you could scarcely have acted otherwise, especially when not contravening any of the rights of your conferees.
We congratulate you upon what appears to be a most opportune and an enlarged sphere of activity and statusary prospect of remuneration. But we must be permitted to express to you that feeling of sadness which necessarily accompanies the thought of separation, even in business, from those with whom our relations have been altogether cordial. You carry with you, sir, the esteem of your fellows, for whose exhibitions of generous concern, which you have at all times manifested in your college duties. Wishing you health, happiness and success, we are,
Truly Yours,
JAMES E. SCOBY, Pres.
M. L. LIPSCOMB, Vice-Pres.

A Bad Beginning.
Deputy Sheriff Sam Head-brought to town and lodged in jail last Saturday night a twelve-year old boy by the name of Wm. Dunning.
The boy was arrested at Crofton and was charged with stealing a horse from a man by the name of Ballock, near St. Charles. The boy had his examining trial Monday and claimed that he only rode the horse a short distance and then turned him loose.
The young reprobate was turned loose and bid good night to more.
Perhaps a good threatening would be of permanent advantage to such infantile law-breakers. He was too young to keep in jail and too old to be guilty of such conduct.—Hopkins Illustrator.

Prohibition Offenders.
Judge Winfree has been hearing prohibition cases this week. Jno.
Yaucy was fined $55 in two cases, Wm. Jessup $55 in two cases, Ed Gonhot $102 in two cases, and Geo.
Savage $51—all of which were appealed to the circuit court.
Saturday Jim Hicketts, Joe West, Wm. Davis and Charles Chastain will be tried for making free with the liquor law.
Tuesday Bob West was fined $100.
